PISCICULTURE.

Chew Jackson's Best Sweet Navy Tobacco. City Council to-night. This'll pass for winter. It's regular hog-killing weather now, and no mistake.

Atlanta is pining for the advent of another Pinafore troupe into that city.

Rev. W. W. Bays is announced to preach in the Presbyterian Church in Kingston, next Sunday morning.

Mr. Lindsey, the photographer, displays in front of his gallery some excellent pictures of the rope walk at Dare.

The art illustrations, which were here last week, opened up an engagement in Atlanta, Ga., Wednesday night.

Adah Richmond is skirmishing all around Atlanta as though she was afraid to come there, says the Constitution.

Kingston East Tennessee: Capt. S. P. Evans, of Knoxville, purchased last week the Capt. Doss farm, located a few miles below town, paying $8,000.

Bill Tipton, of the Cleveland Herald, advises his office open every day from 5 a. m. till 11 p. m. for the reception of invitations to Thanksgiving dinners.

This is the only time in the history of municipal elections in Chattanooga, says the Times, that neither a Republican nor a Democratic candidate for Mayor is in the field.

From the Bristol News we learn that Mr. Thomas Cecil, who has been teaching at Glade Spring, Va., has been elected to the Presidency of People's College at Pikeville, to succeed Rev. R. N. Price.

Enough snow fell in Atlanta, Ga., Wednesday morning to have made the ground white if it had been stuck, but it didn't. The Constitution learned that there was a fall of three inches at Chattanooga, but we opine this is a mistake.

Cleveland Herald: The Ducktown mines were to have been sold Tuesday, but up to yesterday evening late nothing definite from there had been received. A street rumor, however, says they were bid off to Thos. O'Connor, of Knoxville.

The Dandridge Watchman learns with regret that J. F. Ross, deputy agent at Mossy Creek, got his thigh broke by jumping from a freight car while in motion, at Riceville, on last Friday. He had been to Cleveland to see his brother, who is lying at the point of death with the fever.

Chattanooga Times, Wednesday: Sheriff Alex. Reeder, of Knoxville, arrived in the city yesterday, bringing Jenkins, one of Norton's accused murderers, with him. Jenkins was remanded to this county for another trial by the Supreme Court, the action of the Circuit Court in sending him to the penitentiary for seven years being not sustained.

Get Woolen Things at Strong's and keep warm, thus saving health, money and doctors' bills.

Washington Republican, Wednesday: William Rule, Esq., editor and proprietor of the Knoxville daily CHRONICLE, the only daily Republican paper published in the late Confederacy, has come to the Ebbit.

Chattanooga Times, Wednesday: Mrs. E. S. McClung, of Knoxville, was in the city yesterday.....Miss Sallie Park, one of the belles of Knoxville, arrived in the city last night.

Cleveland Herald: John Donaldson and Will. Turley, two well known Knoxville drummers, spent last Sunday in Cleveland. The boys will spend their Sundays here, Oh, woman! how powerful thou art.

Capt. Will. A. McTeer, a prominent member of the legal profession at Maryville, has been in the city for two or three days, busily engaged at the County Court Clerk's office winding up the McTeer estate, in the capacity of an attorney.

Capt. Will. H. Fain, of Blountville, was in the city and made the CHRONICLE a call yesterday.

A Lady's Wish. "Oh, how I do wish my skin was as clear and soft as yours," said a lady to her friend. "You can easily make it so," answered the friend. "How?" inquired the first lady. "By using Hop Bitters, that makes pure, rich blood and blooming health. It did it for me, as you observe."

HOGS! HOGS!!

Fat Hogs Wanted!!!

Parties wishing to sell Fat Hogs will find it to their interest to call on Ignaz Fanz, at the East Tennessee Pork House and Steam Sausage Factory, on the Knoxville and Ohio Railroad, as he proposes to pay the HIGHEST Market Price in CASH. nov19-dif.

Steele & Price.

For years the firm of Steele & Price have had the largest trade in their specialties of any house in the United States. Their Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, Special Flavoring Extracts and Perfumes have gained a reputation for excellence that no articles of their kind have ever yet acquired.

Bottom Prices.

McMullen & Co. have reduced their prices on Ladies' Shoes. nov16-dif.

A Small Sized Burglary.

Some time during Wednesday night Mr. Rush Strong's Reservoir street store, just opposite the livery stable of Thompson & Jones, was entered by a burglar, or burglars, the cash drawer broken open and robbed of some three or four dollars in change, among which was about a hundred coppers. The entrance was effected by breaking out the transom over the back door. Nothing else could be missed, except a shawl. The party had taken a pair of scissors to break open the cash drawer, and left the scissors broken. It was quite a bold adventure, being in such a thickly settled part of the city. A jet of gas was also left burning up large in the store, which, it seems, should have been some protection. Another mystery about the affair is, how the burglar got in the enclosure, which is a very high and unscalable wall, and the gate leading into it was locked. The burglar let himself out at the door, unlocking it on the inside, and it was found standing open in the morning.

There is no clue, as yet, to the perpetrator, but the matter will be ferreted out.

Oysters! Oysters!! Oysters!! Fresh and good, by the Can, Quart, or Gallon, at PETER KERN'S.

Death of Mrs. R. W. Patty.

We regret to learn of the death of the wife of Rev. R. W. Patty, a well known Methodist minister, formerly a useful member of the Holston Conference, but now a resident of Oregon. Her death occurred at their residence near Sheridan, Oregon, on the 28th of October, and the information was received through a letter to their son, Alderman R. S. Patty, of this city.

She was a noble type of a true Christian woman, a devoted and loving wife and mother, and lived to a good old age. She had many warm friends in this part of the country. In her death, the venerable and zealous itinerant minister experiences an almost irreparable bereavement, as well as do the other members of the family, in which they have the heartfelt sympathies of all, but they live in hope of meeting her on the other shore, for she died a triumphant death.

It was the request of her husband, as we learn, that Rev. J. B. Little, preacher in charge of the Knox Circuit shall preach her funeral sermon at Rocky Dale Church, in this county.

School House in the 12th District.

At a public meeting held at "Marietta," old Lomas place, on the Kingston pike, three miles from the city, on last Saturday, for the purpose of raising funds with which to build a public school house on a lot deeded to the School Director of the 12th district by H. A. Lomas, of California, situated on the pike, near Joe. Mary's, the sum of $190 was subscribed. Our enterprising friends Wm. Osborne and Jos. Mary lead off with liberal subscriptions. This is a step in the right direction. Let the citizens of that community, out of their own pockets, build a good, substantial school house, so as not to impair the public fund in running the school at that place. A good public school house situated immediately on the pike would add materially to that popular community. The school is to be known as the "H. A. Lomas Institute," named for the donor of the lot of one acre.

Railroad Tax Assessments.

The work of the State Board of Railroad Tax Assessors, has been thoroughly revised by the Board of Examiners, composed of the Governor, Secretary of State and State Treasurer. The following is now the assessed value of the lines in and contiguous to East Tennessee, as given in the Nashville American:

East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia.....	$2,321,350 00
Memphis & Charleston.....	$2,088,000 00
Rogersville & Jefferson.....	$2,000 00
Knoxville & Charleston.....	$2,440 00
Roads Iron Company.....	$10,000 00
Cincinnati Southern.....	$77,300 00
Knoxville & Ohio.....	$309,450 00
Cincinnati, Cumberland Gap & Charleston.....	$139,318 00
Western Union Telegraph Company.....	$14,508 00

"The Nursery."

A monthly magazine for youthful readers, published by John L. Shorey, 36 Bromfield street, Boston, Mass., is one of the best magazines for young readers we know of. It is printed in good clear type, and the reading matter is just such as to interest children, and is well selected. It was started in January, 1877, and has met with wonderful success. No family with children should be without it, and parents would do well to make their little folks happy by giving them a year's subscription to the Nursery for a holiday present. Price of subscription, $1.50 a year in advance, two copies for $2.50, and three for $4.00. A specimen copy will be mailed for 15 cents. Try one copy and be convinced it is worth the money.

Convicts to Coal Creek.

Capt. John F. Davis, an agent of the penitentiary lessees, took out four convicts on the K. & O. train yesterday evening to Coal Creek. They are parties who had their sentences confirmed by the late Supreme Court, and have been in the Knoxville jail since. They are as follows: Joe Davis, three years, for false pretenses; Frank James, four years, and Frank Boober, two years, for felonious assault, all from Hamilton county, and Pleasant Senter, Grainger county, three years, for felonious assault.

Kingston Items.

The two events in Kingston society during the past few days were, first the marriage at the Presbyterian Church, on the 18th inst., by Rev. Mr. Glenn, of Mr. Thos. C. Ervin and Miss Maggie Wester. This is described by the East Tennesseean as having been a brilliant affair. The attendants were: J. E. Muecke and Miss Dixie Welcker; W. C. Shelby and Miss Anna Wester; G. W. Henderson and Miss Nannie Roberts.

The other event was the marriage on the 18th, by Rev. W. B. Brown, of Mr. Geo. W. Henderson and Miss Archie Pettijohn. This ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's father Capt. A. Pettijohn.

The following additional items are taken from the East Tennesseean:

During the high winds which prevailed here last Saturday morning the tall flag pole which stood near the court house was blown over and came down with a mighty crash.

The Allison Brothers sold the steamer Harry Helm, which has been doing duty as a packet boat between London and Rockwood for the past few years, on Monday to Mr. Harry Allison, of Knoxville, price $1,250. We understand she is to be taken above Knoxville and serve as a feeder to the Rogersville railroad.

The pocket-book which was stolen from J. H. Adkins, last summer, and for which Milburn and Taylor were convicted and sent to the penitentiary, was found the other day by a boy, children, buried near a tree in the field near Clark's Ferry. The book, as well as the notes and papers in it, were pretty well rotted.

Constable John Williams was returning home late Saturday evening from a tax gathering expedition, in the 2nd district, and when near Col. Young's, about four miles from town, was fired upon by some unknown parties in ambush, in a corn field near the road. Several shots were fired in succession, two of which entered his saddle-pockets, and another passed through his coat. He states that the parties ran immediately after the shooting, and while he could distinguish the forms, it was too dark to identify them.

Testing upon a Bed of Agony.

Tortured in every joint with inflammatory rheumatism, is a prospect which may become a melancholy fact if the twinges of the dread disease are not checked at the outset. Persons of a rheumatic tendency find Hostetter's Stomach Bitters a useful remedy, nor do they encounter the risk in using it they do from resorting to that active poison Colchicum, which is often employed to arrest the malady. The use of the Bitters is equally as effective in the result, and is attended with no risk. There is ample testimony to prove that the medicine possesses blood purifying qualities of no common order, besides those of a tonic and general alternative. It stimulates the action of the kidneys and promotes the removal from the system of impurities which develop disease, and are fraught with serious danger. Fever and ague, dyspepsia, debility, nervousness, constipation, &c., are remedied by it.

The Tennessee Baptists.

The Baptist State Convention was held at Brownsville, Tenn., beginning Friday, 14th inst., and closing the Monday following. As we learn from the Nashville American, there were about one hundred and twenty-five delegates in attendance, and it was an interesting and profitable occasion.

Dr. Williams P. Jones, of Nashville, was chosen President, and Rev. J. M. Phillips, of Chattanooga, and Rev. J. R. Graves, of Memphis, were selected as Vice Presidents.

The American remarks in this connection:

"The selection of Dr. Jones as President was a compliment all the more gratifying, because it was the first instance in the history of the convention that a lay delegate was made presiding officer, the honor having always been conferred upon a minister."

A resolution was introduced and unanimously adopted providing that all missionaries employed by the Baptists of Tennessee should give their attention, preach to and give religious instruction to the colored people of the State. Herebefore they have passed resolutions expressing their sympathy for the colored people, but in the future they propose to do more work among that race.

The Mission Board was located at Nashville, the Sunday-school Board at Chattanooga, and the Ministerial Support at Jackson.

Great interest was felt in the educational institutions, and especially the Southwestern University at Jackson and the Mossey Creek College, East Tennessee.

The next convention will be held in Knoxville, in October, 1880.
